

COURSE DESCRIPTION

All students are responsible to bring their IRPG's (Incident Response Pocket Guide) FLHB's (Fireline Handbook) and the applicable PTB (Position Task Book) to each class session. Classes will start at 0900 on the first day and 0800 thereafter. All one day classes will start at 0800. Additional items will be mentioned on the course acceptance letter. You are responsible to double check your enrollment status, current address, phone numbers, and email addresses. This will help ensure that you as the student will receive any and all the information pertaining to the class you are enrolled for. If your supervisor has enrolled/nominated you, it's critical that you double check your enrollment status.

By clicking on the ROLL for each class, you can see an updated class enrollment. This will be done weekly. Any questions or concerns call Angie Menlove (801)863-7704 and or Dan Cather (801)863-7423.

I-200 - BASIC ICS:

ICS FOR SINGLE RESOURCES AND INITIAL ACTION INCIDENTS

Course Description:

This course introduces students to the principles of the Incident Command System (ICS) associated with incident-related performance. Topics include: leadership and management, delegation of authority and management by objectives, functional areas and positions, briefings, organizational flexibility, transitions and transfers.

This course was developed in conjunction with the US Fire Administration (Q-463) and the Emergency Management Institute (IS-200). These courses are built on the same lesson objectives and content as the NWCG I-200 course and are interchangeable; they are all National Incident Management System (NIMS) compliant.

Objectives:

- Describe an Incident Command System (ICS) organization appropriate to the complexity of an incident or event.
- Use the ICS to manage an incident or event.

Target Group:

First line supervisors, single resource bosses, lead dispatchers, field supervisors, and company officers and entry level positions (trainees) on incident management teams.
