

COURSE DESCRIPTION

All students are responsible to bring their IRPG's (Incident Response Pocket Guide) FLHB's (Fireline Handbook) and the applicable PTB (Position Task Book) to each class session. Classes will start at 0900 on the first day and 0800 thereafter. All one day classes will start at 0800. Additional items will be mentioned on the course acceptance letter. You are responsible to double check your enrollment status, current address, phone numbers, and email addresses. This will help ensure that you as the student will receive any and all the information pertaining to the class you are enrolled for. If your supervisor has enrolled/nominated you, it's critical that you double check your enrollment status.

By clicking on the ROLL for each class, you can see an updated class enrollment. This will be done weekly. Any questions or concerns call Angie Menlove (801)863-7704 and or Dan Cather (801)863-7423.

L-180 - HUMAN FACTORS ON THE FIRELINE

This training course is designed for unit-level supervisors to use when delivering orientation training to new crewmembers. The stand-alone training package is available in the NWCG Publication Management System. An adapted version will be included as Unit 4 in the 2003 edition of S-130, Firefighter Training. Presentation of the course involves a few short lecture segments, but the primary content is delivered by video and supported with small group exercises. Topics include: situation awareness, basic communication responsibilities, attitude and stress barriers, decision-making process, and teamwork principles.

Objective:

- Students will demonstrate an understanding of their responsibilities to address human performance issues so they can integrate more effectively into crews/teams operating in high-risk, dynamic work environments.

Target Group:

Entry-level incident personnel.
