

COURSE DESCRIPTION

All students are responsible to bring their IRPG's (Incident Response Pocket Guide) FLHB's (Fireline Handbook) and the applicable PTB (Position Task Book) to each class session. Classes will start at 0900 on the first day and 0800 thereafter. All one day classes will start at 0800. Additional items will be mentioned on the course acceptance letter. You are responsible to double check your enrollment status, current address, phone numbers, and email addresses. This will help ensure that you as the student will receive any and all the information pertaining to the class you are enrolled for. If your supervisor has enrolled/nominated you, it's critical that you double check your enrollment status.

By clicking on the ROLL for each class, you can see an updated class enrollment. This will be done weekly. Any questions or concerns call Angie Menlove (801)863-7704 and or Dan Cather (801)863-7423.

S-336 - TACTICAL DECISION MAKING IN WILDLAND FIRE

Course Description:

This course is designed to meet training requirements in the Operations Section of the Incident Command System. Examples and exercises in this package are specific to wildland fire suppression.

Objectives:

- Develop the knowledge and practice in decision making necessary to effectively apply wildland fire suppression tactics.
- Develop the tools for leadership in applying and teaching appropriate fire suppression tactics at their home unit.

Target Group:

This course is designed primarily to prepare experienced single resource bosses and initial attack incident commanders in the tactics necessary at the strike team/task force leader level. It is also valuable for operations supervisors qualified at higher management levels who have not received training in wildfire suppression tactics.

Course Prerequisites:

Qualified as a single resource boss or initial attack incident commander type 4 (ICT4).
